

I've appreciated the opportunity to be on a "no call" listing and our mealtime, family time and privacy with non-solicited phone calls has been greatly enjoyed. I am not in favor of relaxing any portion of this program so businesses may generate more business - or for that matter - for any reason.